

Deadly Thinking Presenter's Report

Date of workshop: Workshop location:

Community Community (Presenter) Creative Livelihoods DT Youth DT Youth (Presenter)

Number of participants: Report compiled by:

Presenters:

your feedback about how the workshop went, your presentation style and challenges you experienced help us make Deadly Thinking better we can share your successes with other presenters and include new materials and information:

this is your workshop!

1. Were there any challenges you faced in preparing for this workshop? (e.g. IT/support/travel/venue/preparation issues)

.....
.....
.....

2. Which sessions were you able to deliver?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

If sessions were excluded, why? (e.g. 'Money Worries was skipped because it wasn't relevant' or 'ran out of time')

.....
.....
.....

3. Can you provide a specific example of something that went well at this workshop?

.....
.....
.....

4. Were there any noteworthy questions asked by participants about any of the sessions, what did they ask?

.....
.....
.....

5. Can you provide specific examples of any sessions that were of particular interest or contention?

.....
.....
.....

6. Did anyone become distressed during the workshop? yes no
If yes, please provide details as to how you supported the person

If yes, advise RRMH immediately following workshop

.....
.....
.....

7. Thinking about your presentation style, what approaches did you try that worked well, or not so well?
Please give specific examples (e.g. 'I tried a new ice breaker, participants didn't engage as well as I hoped, will try another next time').

.....
.....
.....

8. How did you market/tell people about your workshop?

.....
.....
.....

9. Did you send photos from the workshop to Deadly Thinking Program Manager? yes no

10. Would you like management to contact you to discuss any aspect of the workshop or self-care? yes no

11. Were there any particular strengths or pain points within the community that you, or the participants identified?

.....
.....
.....

Thank you for your time and input.